4. Introduction to the Promotion of Access to Information Act (“PAIA”)

- 4.1 PAIA gives effect to the Constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or by any other person. The right to access information is one of the most effective ways of upholding the constitutional values of transparency, participation and accountability. PAIA sets out the requisite procedure for information requests, including the obligation to compile a PAIA Manual. Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies, like CCB-JHB, to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such body and stipulates the minimum requirements to be included in the manual.
- 4.2 Where a person wishes to obtain information, in terms of PAIA, such a request needs to be in the format as prescribed in the PAIA Manual. The information requested has to be disclosed if the requester is able to show that the information is required for the protection of any rights, provided that no grounds of refusal as per PAIA are applicable.

- 4.3 CCB-JHB has compiled this manual, in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA"), to inform requesters of the procedure to be followed when requesting records and inform the requestor of any other requirements, when requesting records.

5. The Information Regulator Guide
